

2018 HOME DANCE EVALUATION PERFORMANCE GUIDELINES

UPDATED 4/20/18

- Routines are not to exceed more than 1:00 in total length. No minimum time is required.
- All music must be copy write compliant. (See below)
- No cheers or chants are permitted prior, during or after the dance routine.
- All tumbling (including rolls), stunts, basket tosses or pyramids are not permitted.
- Routines should reflect overall exceptional execution, sharp motions, great timing/synchronization, creativity, visuals, level changes, quick/smooth transitions and outstanding showmanship.
- Routines must be suitable for family viewing. No inappropriate clothing, moves, music or lyrics (spoken or implied) are permitted.

The Music Copyrights Educational Initiative from USA Cheer and our Family of Brands have committed to sharing the information and adhering to these guidelines at all of our 2018 cheer camps. Please take a moment to read our music policy below. For more detailed information on how to make sure you are “music compliant” at camp visit www.usacheer.net.

AmeriCheer, AmeriDance & Eastern Cheer and Dance will be adhering to all copyright laws and guidelines related to the music industry. By attending a 2018 AmeriCheer Overnight Camp, you will be acknowledging that your organization is in compliance with all copyright laws and guidelines related to the music industry. By acknowledging your compliance, you may or may not be asked to provide documented proof. If such documented proof cannot be supplied upon request, your organization may forfeit any Home Dance Routine Showcase Awards at camp both during camp and /or after camp. Should you have questions about this policy or for more information please call our offices.
